

Kiloran Howard

One of London's leading photographers, is opening a new practice in Bath.

Renowned in commercial and corporate work, she specializes in wedding and event photography. Her work is a combination of the sophistication of an advertising commission, such as the Safari Campaign she shot for Ralph Lauren, fused with the urgency and excitement of a reportage shoot.

The results convey the elegance and splendour of any occasion while capturing the spontaneity of the moment. As well as the formality of a marriage and its settings, all the unguarded moments of joy and incidental vignettes are captured. Kiloran is enthralled by the mood and beauty of the great day and this imbues her work with an energy not normally associated in this arena.

How does Kiloran achieve her magical results?

- Firstly, in discussion, a shoot list is prepared. Key figures are identified, friendships and relationships contextualised, and targets and expectations set. Nothing is left to chance – except the moments themselves! This is always a great way of drawing in one of the younger family members. He or she will be 'on duty' to point out or gather the relevant relatives and friends at key times. In the excitement of the moment, it is easy for guests or family to forget their presence is expected in a photograph. Youngsters love to be involved in this way.
- Although Kiloran has her own distinctive style of photography, she nonetheless tailors her approach to suit the desires and concept of her clients – formal and stately, haphazard and freestyle, all her images are infused with her unique sense of movement and light.
- Whether shooting in colour and/or black and white, in medium format or 35mm, Kiloran's results are consistently excellent – a testament to the painstaking preparation she invests in every commission.

Rates

Kiloran's standard fee for a wedding is £2,500 plus travel & accommodation expenses.

For this, clients receive an unlimited number of images which are reproduced as 5" x 7" prints and also burnt to CD. Kiloran then chooses a hundred of the images that best represents the day and prints them in 10" x 8" format.

For an additional £400 she creates an unforgettable album that you will treasure for the rest of your lives. This is highly recommended as the images are shot on the day with a view to how they can be edited later. Kiloran is always happy to work with the newlyweds in selecting the best remembrances of their once-in-a-lifetime occasion.

Should a subsequent print order be required this would be an extra cost.

Prints

10" x 8" = £ 6

8" x 6" = £ 4

5" x 7" = £ 3

6" x 4" = £ 2

Biography

Kiloran Howard Your Photographer

Kiloran Howard began her photographic career when she and painter Emma Sergeant were sent on assignment to paint and photograph Afghan refugees in the North West Frontier Province, a tribal area of Pakistan.

The resulting images were exhibited at Agnews, Bond Street in 1986. Channel 4 then sponsored her to go on a photographic trip to Somalia. She has since been commissioned to photograph Ralph Lauren's 'Safari Campaign' while Thomas Pink Shirts, Elizabeth Arden and Penhaligon are among her corporate clients.

Private commissions have included portraits of HRH The Princess Royal, The Saudi Royal Family, Kenneth Brannagh, Gwyneth Paltrow and Jemima Khan.
